EDWARD D. STONE FOR RE-ELECTION

Tax Payers Interested in His Race
For Former Office.—One Who Was Daily at His Duty.

SOMETHING OF HIS WORK.

Representative Edward D. Stone, the Republican nominee for Representative, is delivering some able speeches on the issues of the state.

Mr. Stone has been weighed in the balances and found not wanting. His record is clear. He is the highest type of young manhood, an able, devoted, christian worker.

He is not a member of any political machine or individual interest. He is making the race in behalf of the people and the taxpayers of the district. His platform and record, his honesty, ability and official efficiency are the best reasons to be offered for re-election to the office to which he aspires.

"Stone grows in the two counties," a prominent Democrat said. "I am for representative Stone, because I know him to be a true, reliable, active young man, one that will represent the people and will do what he promises to do."

In one of his recent speeches he said:

"Two years ago I promised, if elected, to repeal in part the present dog law. Did I fulfill that promise? Yes, I introduced the bill and fought day after day for its passage, but at last it went down in defeat in that Democratic body. I promised to labor and vote against any increase in your tax. That promise I fulfilled. I promised to vote and labor to the end against any increase of salaries, creating new offices and appropriations unnecessarily. That promise I kept to the letter. I promised you relief of the rail law created by the Session of 1912. I worked and voted for a measure leaving it optional with the Fiscal court. I tried to the best of my ability to carry out every promise made by me.

"My friends, I believe in economy. I believe in public service. I believe that an office is a public trust. I believe in the faithful discharge of duty, whether it be a private or public duty.

"I believe in the loyalty of the citizen to the supreme power of the State, the supreme power of a Kentuckian is the Constitution of the State and the laws in pursuance of that Constitution, every citizen in Kentucky believe in equity, in equal protection, in a fair and scientific tax law, one which provides a just and equitable classification, dealing fairly with the farmer and the capitalist with visible and intangible wealth and which shall cause every class of property to be taxed for taxation."

Representative Stone said in another speech:

"My first struggle and first vote cast as a servant of the people was in opposing the extra help, which for the last three sessions, cost the taxpayers of this State $46,000. And yet every member of that body promised his constituents that he would practice economy in all departments of the State. A promise, but fulfillment, none. Now my friends what we need in Kentucky is more business and less politics; fewer promises and more

MINISTERS NAMED TO CHURCHES

Of M. E. Conference in Session at Hartford—Rev. J. A. Chandler
Returned to Marion.

The Louisville Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which was in session at Hartford for about a week adjourned Monday at noon after assigning ministers to pulpits in the various districts. Most of the business had been disposed of at Saturday's session, and for the final session there remained only one or two committee reports and the reading of the Conference appointments, which was as follows:

Cecilian, Robt. L. Sleamaker, of Tolu.

Hardinsburg, Robt. Johnson, formerly of Tolu.

Bowling Green circuit, J. B. Adams, presiding elder.

South Scottsville, R. T. McConnell.

Owensboro circuit, J. T. Rushing, presiding elder.

Greenville, J. R. McAtee.

Lewisburg, W. L. Shell.

Stanley, E. Y. Wilson.

Crofton, J. A. Wheeler.

Hopkinsville circuit, Virgil Elgin, presiding elder.

Salom, R. H. Richardson.

Smithland, E. S. Moore.

Marion, J. A. Chandler.

Shady Grove, R. S. Richardson.

Tolu, Alexander Royster.

Elkton, S. K. Breeding.

Rev. Chandler and Mr. Chandler are quite popular here, and their interesting children are especially welcomed back with open arms by their many little friends.

Mrs. McAdams to Keep Open House

Preparator to re-opening her candy parlor and tea room. Mrs. McAdams has spent the last week in making things sanitary and comfortable for her patrons. You are cordially invited to come in on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 14th and be served to a cup of hot chocolate and a sandwich with her compliments.

performance; less lobbying and corruptness, a law on the statute of our state to enforce Sec. 197 of our state constitution, prohibiting State officials, more especially members of the General Assembly, from accepting free passes or passes. We, as true Kentucky citizens, loyal to the government, patriotic in our views, should stand firm in favor of genuine popular rule, and against every species of corruption. I want to assure you that as long as I have the power to do so I am going to fight for clean government, clean manhood, clean politics and a greater Kentucky."

On the anti-pass bill he said:

"I am not radical in my views. I am not an extreme conservative, but I believe in regulation. I would not cripple or injure any beneficial institution. I believe in and will stand for the great institutions in a fair and business way. Railroads are public highways and not private roads. Their charters were not granted to them for the purpose of blocking Legislative Halls with a bundle of free passes. Every free pass issued is in defiance of the law. This favoritism in passenger rates has been accepted by members of this body, and that against their sworn oath of office."

SCHOOL GIVES BIG RECEPTION

To Parents of Pupils—Have Good
Crowd and Everyone Enjoyed
The Evening

The Reception to parents given by the Faculty of Marion Graded and High School, Tuesday evening, while a new feature of school work in Marion was in many respects the greatest meeting of its kind ever held in the city.

Last week invitations were issued to all parents, who had children either in the Graded or High School to meet in the School Auditorium, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Early in the evening the Auditorium was filled with parents—parents who are interested in Marion and in their school and in their boys and girls.

As soon as the guests entered the building they were greeted by the teachers with a cordial Kentucky handshake and a word of Kentucky welcome. A welcome which was appreciated by the parents and a welcome which will tend to draw the parents and teachers closer together in training Crittenden County's childhood.

The ever-faithful and talented Orchestra of the High School furnished music for the occasion.

Miss Holtzclaw was next introduced and in her own, easy way, charmingly entertained the audience with two appropriate readings.

One of the most pleasing features of the musical program was the instrumental quartet; Mrs. S. M. Jenkins, Italian Harp; Miss Lucile Pope, Violin; Miss Linda Jenkins, Clarinet; Medley Cannan, Cello.

The quartette was followed on the program by a splendid reading by Miss Lucile Moore, after which refreshments, consisting of brick cream and cake were served.

In a few well chosen words Prof. Christian explained the purpose of the meeting which was to organize a Parent-Teachers Club.

W. D. Cannan was a kered for an address, and in a very forceful way he explained the benefit to be derived from an organization of this sort.

Short, but interesting and enthusiastic speeches were made by J. G. Rochester, C. W. Haynes, C. R. Newcom and E. J. Travis. Every speech of the evening was full of life—the kind of life that upbuilds and makes the spirit of co-operation and good will contagious.

Officers for the Marion Parent-Teachers Club were elected as follows: Jno. W. Blue, Pres. Mrs. George P. Roberts, Vice

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED

In Revival at Main St. Presbyterian Church.—And Meeting Will Be Continued

Owing to the unusual interest and the demand of the church people of Marion, the revival meeting at the Main Street Presbyterian church by Evangelists Bell and Lauderdale will continue over the coming Sunday. Definite action was taken following the men's meeting Sunday afternoon. At that service over 200 men gathered. Following a strong sermon by Evangelist Bell on "Sowing and Reaping" a number of men ranging from 15 to 70 years of age, came forward to dedicate their lives to the service of the Master. It was a powerful service and a committee was formed at once to request the Evangelists to stay another week.

The services this week will be as follows: At the church twice daily—10 in the morning and 7 in the evening; open air meeting at the courthouse Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock; three services Sunday—at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. The afternoon meeting will be for Christians only. Special music at every service.

At a meeting of the district board of the Stemming District Tobacco Association held at Henderson last week, it was decided to defer payment of the $54,171.60 for the present and push the sale of 41 hogsheads, now in the hands of commission merchants in Liverpool. Mr. Elliott general manager explained the efforts he had made to push the sale of this tobacco.

The cash now on hand is on deposit in Henderson drawing 4 percent interest.

The committee hopes to sell the remainder at an early date, and a final distribution will be made as soon as a sale is closed.
